NWSEO 35th Annual Convention is October 9-10

The 35th Annual NWSEO Convention will be Saturday and Sunday, October 9-10 at the Eden Roc Hotel in Miami, Florida. It's a time to learn in depth about NWSEO's work and accomplishments. You'll hear about upcoming events, strategies and opportunities. This is also a great opportunity to network with other professionals throughout the country. Many NWSEO members return to the event every year.

"Preserving the vital CWSU program has been just one of many issues affecting NWS employees that the NWSEO has been determined to solve. The commitment to find equitable solutions to threatened programs or individual employee problems, no matter how complex or how long it takes to solve, is what makes the NWSEO stand out for me," said John Stansfield, a meteorologist at the Boston CWSU and NWSEO steward. "The annual NWSEO convention is a great opportunity to directly interact with NWSEO leadership in order to express viewpoints about issues. In addition, I thoroughly enjoy the comradery among fellow NWS employees from across the country experienced at each convention I have attended during the past decade."

Room rates for the Eden Roc Hotel are $129 per night. If you encourage two new members to join NWSEO in 2010, your hotel stay and travel expenses are covered by NWSEO. NWSEO will provide lunch on Saturday and Sunday and a Saturday evening dinner buffet as part of the convention. NWSEO.org will keep you informed about Convention Registration in the coming months. We hope to see you in Miami!
